MARSEILLE PROVENCE, A SERIOUSLY ATTRACTIVE SOUTHERN METROPOLIS

With its outstanding location and thriving economy, tourism and culture, Marseille, the France's second city, has been part of rapid Mediterranean and international development for the last 10 years.

As the capital of Provence, Marseille's ambition is founded on its remarkable potential and key advantages.

Marseille is able to justify and strengthen its position as a strategic growth area through a combination of the following 3 aspects :

- > A port city with a thriving business area that opens the door to Europe and Mediterranean countries.
- > A city of knowledge and creativity, based on its potential for higher education, scientific research and technological innovation network.

> A city of tourism and culture

Over the past few years, tourism has been established as one of the major pillars of economic development in Marseille. As the 2013 European Capital of Culture, Marseille was the 5th European tourist destination, in part due to its exceptional surroundings with the Calanques National Park, MuCEM, the Frioul archipelago...

The ICCA (International Congress and Convention Association) rankings Marseille as the 2nd French congress city, and 74th internationally.

The city of Marseille obtained in 2014 the price «Congress and city of the Year» for the reception of APM Convention in Marseille Chanot.

THEY HAVE CHOSEN MARSEILLE CHANOT

“ Over the years since the establishment of our warehouses in Saint Martin de Crau, our numbers have grown. We hold our annual convention in Marseille, bringing all of our employees together. Marseille Chanot gives us exactly what we need, especially in terms of staff support and service quality. Marseille also has great transport links and is the ideal location for gathering everyone together from right around France and Europe! ”

*Vanessa Guillaumont, Operations Manager, Maisons du monde
(National Convention, 500 persons, Palais des Congrès)*

“ For the second year in a row, we organised our regional managers convention at the Palais des Congrès. Each year, the event brings together 300 managers from across the Provence-Alpes-Côte d’Azur region. Marseille Chanot met our 3 selection criteria: visitor capacity, venue accessibility and public transport (5 metro stops on a direct line from Saint Charles train station) and the technical expertise required to create a multi-user video-conference. ”

Françoise Merck, Communication Manager, SNCF PACA Regional Management (Regional convention, 300 persons, Palais des Congrès)

“ Marseille Chanot’s main selling point is its ability to host any type of event, both large and small. A highlight for us was the evening we organised for 3.600 employees of the Carrefour group. The Palais des Evénements offers a large and adaptable conference room with good acoustics – the perfect venue for the dinner and concert we were organising. Marseille Chanot also has an extremely efficient team that offers effective support from both a technical and commercial perspective. Marseille is now a highly attractive destination, and lots of large companies are choosing to hold their events here. ”

Sylvie Cottin, Head of CO2 Communication
