TOURISM AND CULTURAL ASSETS

PROVENCE:

Marseille is located at the heart of the most visited region in France, famous for its landscapes and way of life.

Discover the relaxed lifestyle and breath-taking views with the Calanques, wild creeks, authentic inland areas and much more.

Marseille's economy is undergoing rapid transformations. The city is France's second largest centre for public scientific research, but also features around ten centres of excellence for innovative sectors such as aeronautics, microelectronics and secure communicating solutions.

Marseille is also home to Southern Europe's largest urban renovation project, Euroméditerranée, which has been helping transform the city since 1995.

GREAT CULTURAL HERITAGE

For your formal evening events, Marseille has a wealth of unusual and emblematic cultural venues, including MuCEM, La Friche de la Belle de Mai, Villa Méditerranée, Le Dock des Suds or even tourist sites, such as Château d'If, Palais Longchamp, Île Degaby or Stade Vélodrome...
